Just in time for Spring, we've given our newsletters and Broker Connection a fresh look and feel. We hope you like it! But, beyond just a new look, we're excited to share some of the latest developments and enhancements on Broker Connection. This month, we're introducing new features to our Client List, including autopay options and clearer cancellation identifiers to help you better manage your book of business. With more changes to come, we're making navigating our portal even more intuitive.

And that's not all – this month, we also share insights into maximizing healthcare value with Teladoc, essential training on SEP for brokers, and a breakdown of GLP-1 weight loss drugs. There's lots to explore as we provide you with the latest tools and resources for your needs.
