

IFP Broker Update

With Open Enrollment behind us, we want to recognize and thank you for your dedication in helping individuals and families secure the coverage they need. Your efforts make a real difference, ensuring that more Californians have access to quality health care.

As we transition into the Special Enrollment Period (SEP), your expertise remains essential. Many clients will still need guidance as they navigate qualifying life events and explore their coverage options. We appreciate your continued commitment and look forward to supporting you throughout 2025.
