- In programs where providers calculate their own performance, the APL advises MCPs to supply providers with the necessary data.
- The APL includes a chart showing the advised data elements, minimum frequency to provide data, data format, and turnaround times for MCPs to follow in their data sharing.
- APL 25-015 encourages MCPs to accept all relevant supplemental data from providers in the abovementioned programs in order to maximize potential performance and improve data integrity.
- DHCS has released the California Technical Specifications \(CaTS\) to provide specific direction to MCPs on how to calculate provider-level quality measure performance. Additional resources can be found on the DHCS Directed Payments website.
- The APL advises MCPs on how to communicate with providers about programs, either by addressing issues directly or connecting providers with designated subject matter experts (SMEs). Providers should be able to reach SMEs directly or through a program-specific email inbox.
